
THE LION LINE

Learn the True, Do the Good, Love the Beautiful

Welcome, summer.

It's been an unusual year, Lions. We miss seeing the scholars on campus and hearing the hustle and bustle of the Academy in action. We are grateful to our students, parents, and teachers for rising to the occasion throughout the distance learning process. We aren't sure what lies ahead; we hope for normalcy in the upcoming school year. As we receive communication from the Florida Department of Education and the Clay County School District, we will share it with you. If you have questions over the summer, please don't hesitate to reach out via phone or email.

Administration is preparing for next year by interviewing and hiring new teachers, working on course schedules, ordering textbooks, and a plethora of other tasks. We'll introduce you to our outstanding group of new teachers, who have been hired for the 2020-2021 school year, in the July newsletter.

Thank you to Mrs. Natasha Bull for serving as the SJCA Parent Liaison for the 2020-2021. We appreciate all you have done for our families this year. We wish your family the best.

Over the next few days, we will collect textbooks, novels, and Chrome Books so that your family can look forward to a relaxing summer vacation that is sprinkled with some normalcy. We extend our deepest gratitude to Ms. Lori Meredith for serving as the Interim Headmaster this year. Ms. Meredith devoted countless hours to running SJCA during the 2019-2020 school year; we appreciate all she has done to manage SJCA during this transitional period. Mr. Johnson, the new SJCA Headmaster, comes aboard on June 8th. The faculty, staff, and administration are excited to work under his leadership. SJCA's future is bright and promising.

This issue of The Lion Line focuses on summer learning. There is no required work; however, many parents look for opportunities to continue academics during the summer months. We've listed a multitude of resources for your scholars to use in this edition. They have also been posted on the SJCA website.

Finally, we'd like to say goodbye and extend our warmest wishes to our faculty members who will not be returning to SJCA next year: Mr. Clarke, Mrs. Cardona, Mrs. Cooper, Ms. Yarberr, Mrs. Stratton, Mrs. Grewe, Mr. Everhart, and Dr. Leon. We wish each of them the best of luck in their future endeavors. We sincerely appreciate their service to our Academy.

Way to Go, Wendell!

The CLT10 is the official preparatory exam for the Classical Learning Test. The CLT is an achievement test suited to our rigorous, classical education; it draws test passages from the greatest authors from a diverse background, including many authors studied in our curriculum. The CLT10 also reintroduces logic as an academic standard for students. Last month, some of our 10th grade scholars took the CLT 10 online. Wendell Feliciano-Berrocales was recognized as a CLT10 Distinguished Scholar. He received the highest score in our school. Congratulations Wendell!

Supply Lists

The K-6th grade supply lists for next year are on pages 6-8 of this newsletter and can also be found here. Be sure to check page eight for supplies needed for elementary resource classes. Upper School lists will be provided to scholars during the first week of school. Additionally, planners will be available for purchase during the first week of school. We will update the cost of planners in the near future.

Family & Scholar Handbook

The 2020-2021 received Board approval and can now be found on the Academy's website. Please take some time this summer to thoroughly review this important document.
